NEW BOWLING ALLEYS IN CITY

Are Shortly to Be Opened by Fairmont and Clarksburg Amusement Concern.

A new addition to the city's amusements is shortly to be made in the opening of the Gore bowling alleys. The alleys are situated in the basement of the new Gore building at the corner of Pike and Second streets, and will be operated by the Fairmont and Clarksburg Amusement company, which owns a similar establishment in Fairmont.

The local alley will be in charge of E. G. Dresbach, who will reside in the Gore building, having moved here recently from Fairmont. The feature of the new establishment is found in the accommodations for ladies. The place will be conducted in a thoroughly respectable manner, and as there is no saloon in connection, it is asserted that all objectionable features which might bar women from attending are removed from this popular game. To this end a ladies' retiring room has been provided for, and a number of benches have been installed for spectators.

Of the best Brunswick-Balke type, the equipment includes six alleys, two of which are equipped with the "loop the loop return," a new feature in bowling alleys. The three Brunswick-Balke pool and billiard tables are of the best make, and covered with cloth of the best quality. Ebony spliced, ivory tipped cues will be used.

Admission is by way of the Pike street entrance. The basement projects slightly above the street, so that sufficient light may be had during the day. Electric lights with stained glass shades will furnish illumination at night.

The opening has been postponed on account of the delay in the arrival of small equipment, such as cue racks, but announcement of the formal opening will be made within a day or two. The Cadanza orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion.

EMORY BRAND HAS BIG RECORD

In Station Agency Service Almost Continuously Twenty-Two Years.

MT. CLARE, Dec. 16.—Just twenty-two years ago, this date, Emory Brand, a mere youth, was sent here by the West Virginia and Pittsburgh Railroad Company as its agent for this station. The depot at that time consisted of an 8x10 foot shed, in which he at once installed a small telegraph battery, and his first message was from the dispatcher to Superintendent A. M. Lane, at Weston, and reads as follows:

"Mt. Clare, W. Va., Dec. 16, 1888.
"A. M. L., Weston, W. Va."
"Mary Jones, a domestic, asks for pass, Weston to Buckhannon. Answer at Weston."
"H. J. C."

For over sixteen years Mr. Brand without help, transacted all the business of the road for this place, which included all agency and telegraphic work, besides the weighing of every loaded freight car that passed this station. The weighing of the cars was discontinued several years ago, and it now requires the services of four persons to do the business of this section. It is doubtful if the B. & O. company has an agent in its employ who has served longer continuously at one point, than Mr. Brand. But the most remarkable feature of his service is the fact that in all the twenty-two years of hard service his lost time by vacations and otherwise does not aggregate over thirty days. Two years ago he received a ten days' vacation on account of ill health, but was called back to his post of duty before his time had half expired. He will likely be doing the agency work here for several years to come.

The Rev. B. H. Shattuck closed his meetings at Green Hill Sunday evening, and he is now assisting the Rev. Mr. Kelley in his evangelical work in the M. P. church here. "In union there is strength," applies as much to religious work as to secular matters, and such earnest co-operation of the two physical forces superinduced by divine power, will not likely be barren of good results. A good interest is already manifested, and the day meetings have been especially helpful.

The Clarksburg Heat & Light Company drilled in its well on the Maxwell farm Monday, and it will have a medium gusher.
On the farm of the Holden heirs, the Hope Gas Company, though claiming to have a good gusher, is still drilling with the hope of finding some richer treasure.
